Vertical Augmentation with Bone Rings

The technique presented on this lecture will show that exactly fitting annular bone grafts permit the three-dimensional vertical augmentation of bone defects and the insertion of dental implants in a single surgical procedure. Both the preparation of the recipient site and the harvesting of the bone graft are effected using trephine cutters. To this end, the implant bed within the transplant is removed before the transplant itself is harvested from the donor site, affording rigid fixation of the transplant with the aid of the implant itself. But to achieve full treatment success several requirements must be met...
